Q1. Translate the following paragraph into Urdu.

- a. Quaid-e-Azam was a man of strong faith and belief. He firmly believed that the new emerging state of Pakistan based upon Islamic principles would reform the society as a whole. In his Eid message, September 1945, Quaid-e-Azam said, "Islam is a complete code regulating the whole Muslim society, every department of life collectively and individually."
- b. In the fifth and sixth centuries mankind stood on the verge of chaos. It seemed that civilization that which has taken four thousand years to grow has started crumbling. At this point in time, Allah Almighty raised a Rasool among them to lift the humanity from ignorance into the light of faith.
- c. Her grandfather Hazrat Abu Quhafaah (R.A) was a disbeliever at that time. He was very old and had become blind. He said to her, "Asma. I think Abu Bakar has taken all the wealth leaving you and children empty-handed and helpless." At this she instantly ran to a corner of the home, gathered some pebbles and put them at a place where her father used to keep his money and jewels. She covered it with a piece of cloth. "Come grandfather, look! He has left all this for us."
- d. Most important element in the interior of the masjid is mehrab, which is made of finely carved marble. To the right of mehrab is a richly decorated pulpit. The masjid is so designed that even when it is most crowded, everyone in the masjid can listen and see at the Imam.
- e. The ideology of Pakistan was based on the fundamental principle that the Muslims are an independent nation. Any attempt to get them merges their national and political identity will be strongly resisted.
